All Building Up Sports Academy Camps will include an end of the week Awards Ceremony where campers receive a t-shirt and a trophy/medal.

Our camps are structured and we constantly keep our campers moving and entertained as well as teaching sports skills. We have an ice cream party every Wednesday of camp (except fishing camp). The last day of camp we will play an official game and have an awards ceremony in which all campers will receive a t-shirt and medal. We also give out an award for sportsmanship player of the week. Our staff is well trained and our camper's safety and satisfaction is our #1 concern! All camp directors are CPR and First aid certified, as well as, state certified teachers and coaches.

FRANKLIN SAILING CAMPS ON LAKE MANGONIA

MARTIN STEPHAN SAILING INSTRUCTOR

Coach Stephan has literally sailed and raced all around the world. He has raced 50's in Block Island, Newport, Key West, Antigua race week, etc. He has also sailed Maxi boats at the Kenwood cup in Hawaii, big boat series in San Francisco, all over the Mediterranean and as far as Auckland New Zealand. He has sailed in the Swan World Championships in Italy and was a member of the winning America's Cup Team in 1992 on William Koch's team America3.

He has displayed tremendous leadership and management skills by helping to start 4 high school sailing teams from scratch, and being the sailing director at 3 different yacht clubs.

CARRIK SEEMANN SAILING INSTRUCTOR

Carrik started sailing at 11 yrs old in the summer sailing program. At the age of 15, he started volunteering and at age 18 he became an instructor. In college, he sailed for the University of West Florida and was Fleet Captain and came home over the summers to work for the sailing program. In 2005, he took over the sailing program as Mr. Franklin retired.
